

2026 TASMANIAN TOURISM AWARDS CATEGORY DESCRIPTIONS

There are 26 national categories to choose from, along with an additional eight state-based awards (including the two 'split' national categories). Each category has its own category description and set of questions.

It is recommended that entrants review the category descriptor and questions and select the category which is best suited to their tourism business/experience. If you are not sure, please contact Kelly Luck, Tourism Awards Program Manager at tourismawards@tict.com.au.

National award categories:

29. CHAIR OF JUDGES' AWARD FOR POSITIVE IMPACT TOURISM

To align with the 2030 Visitor Economy Strategy and its focus on a Positive Impact agenda, this award recognises the best example of Positive Impact Tourism from submissions across all 26 national tourism award categories. The ultimate winner is determined by the Chair of Judges, with specific regards to the demonstration of positive impact to the Tasmanian environment, community and economy. No separate entry is available for this category.

30. PEOPLE'S CHOICE

This award category is completely independent from the judging process, with winners selected based on consumer choice – combining both online review scores and a public vote. Finalists comprise the Tasmanian tourism operators with the highest Global Review Index (GRI) score across the qualifying period, 1 July - 30 June. An online public vote contributes to the final result for this category. No separate entry is available for this category.

31. TOURISM MINISTER'S YOUNG ACHIEVER

The Tourism Minister's Young Achiever is awarded to an exceptional emerging business leader, entrepreneur, or tourism professional, aged 35-years or under, from across the Tasmanian tourism industry. TICT welcomes you to nominate an individual or couple, aged 35 or under, who you believe has made an outstanding contribution to the Tasmanian Tourism industry in their career so far. Nominees will be shortlisted based on the judging criteria and presented to the Tourism Minister for consideration.

32. TASMANIAN TOURISM CHAMPION

The Tasmanian Tourism Champion is the Tasmanian tourism industry's highest individual honour. This award is conferred each year by Tourism Industry Council Tasmania to an individual (or couple) who has made an outstanding contribution to the Tasmanian tourism industry through their investments, leadership, advocacy, and both professional and voluntary service, over a number of years.
